Clark Superior Court,

State of North Carolina,

Washington County. In the Superior Court,
A paper writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of E. F. Blount, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by James C. Blount the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of H. A. Litchfield and F. R. Johnston that H. A. Alexander, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, is dead, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said H. A. Litchfield and F. R. Johnston that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. A. Alexander, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. A. Alexander subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said W. A. Alexander.

It is therefore concluded by the Court, that the said paper-writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and Testament of the said E. F. Blount and the same is ordered to be

C. W. Tinslow,

Clark Superior Court,

I, John R. Hopkins of Washington County, State of N. C., being of sound mind, memory & understanding, praise be God for the same, do make this my last will & testament in manner & form following-

I give devise & bequeath unto my beloved wife Narcissa E. Hopkins forever all my property Real, Personal & mixed, of what nature or kind soever & wheresoever the same may be at the time of my death.

And I do nominate, constitute & appoint my said wife sole executrix of this my last will & testament, hereby revoking & making void all and every other will or wills at any time heretofore made by me & do declare this to be my last will & testament.

In witness whereof, I the said John R. Hopkins have hereunto set my hand & seal, this 18th day of June, 1910.

J. R. Hopkins, (Seal)

Signed, declared & published by the above named John R. Hopkins as and for his last will & testament in the presence of us, who at his request & in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of J. R. Hopkins, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Narcissa E. Hopkins, the Executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said J. R. Hopkins, by the oath and examination of S. M. Woodley and W. P. Lucas, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. R. Hopkins; that the said J. R. Hopkins, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 15th day of June, 1910.

And this deponent further saith, that the said J. R. Hopkins, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time, when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. R. Hopkins was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.
