Probate

Washington County: In the Probate Court
Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston being duly sworn each separately and for himself say:

That he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harriet M. Parmele deceased late of Washington County

That the said Harriet M. Parmele in presence of both the said Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston subscribed her name to the paper writing now shown and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said Harriet M. Parmele and which paper writing bears date the 17th day of August 1873

And the said Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston each separately and for himself further depose and say: That the said Harriet M. Parmele did at the time of signing her name to said paper writing declare the paper writing as signed by her, and which is the paper writing now shown, to be and contain her last Will and Testament, and did request the said Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston to sign said paper writing as subscribing witnesses thereto, and the said Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston did thereupon at such request in the presence of the said Harriet M. Parmele and in the presence of each other subscribe their names as witnesses thereto.

And the said Thomas M Johnston and Ara Johnston each for himself further depose and say that at the time when the said Harriet M. Parmele subscribed her name to the said paper writing now shown them and declared the same to be her last Will and Testament and at the time of these deponents subscribing their names thereto as subscribing witnesses as aforesaid, the said Harriet M. Parmele was of sound mind and memory and more than twenty one years of age and was not under any restraint to the knowledge of either of us the deponents, or to our information or belief was she acting under any undue influence whatsoever
