Surely sworn and subscribed this 10th day of April 1888, before me,

The J. Marquis
Clerk Superior Court.

In the name of God. Amen. I Frederick Spruill of the County of Washington in the state of North Carolina being of sound disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will & Testament hereby revoking all other wills herefore made.

First I desire & direct my remains to be buried in a decent and Christian manner at the discretion of my Executor and Executrix hereafter to be appointed.

Second I direct that my just debts be paid by my said Executor and Executrix in such manner as is legal and as they may think best for all concerned in my estate.

I lend to my beloved wife Mary E. Spruill for and during her life of widowhood the following property viz. my tract of land whereon I live also all of my cattle horses, hogs, sheep, farming animals of every kind, also all my household and kitchen furniture, &c. and during her life of widowhood as aforesaid I will & direct that my said wife shall cultivate the land or cause the same to be done, to enable her to provide food & raiment for my children & she to keep them free from expense, my said wife shall have right to make sales of such portion of the crops & stock as shall be necessary to purchase such things as shall be necessary for her support & family.

Fourth I give & devise unto my children in common the tract of land whereon I live to be taken in possession at the death of my said wife, to them their heirs & assigns forever.

Sixth I direct that the movable property mentioned in the third item of this will, shall go to my children equally at the death of my said wife.

Seventh I will & direct that if my said wife shall marry again that a sale of all the property herein mentioned shall take place & the proceeds to be divided between each of my children & my said wife.

I nominate & appoint my Brother James J. Spruill Executor & my wife Mary E. Spruill Executrix to this my last will & Testament.

This 5th day of May 1889
