North Carolina } Superior Court
Washington County }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Jas D. Newbury deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by D. W. Newbury the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Jas D. Newbury is proven by the oath and examination of Charles Latham and L. L. Pettigrew, the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn both depose and say and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Jas D. Newbury deceased. That the said Jas D. Newbury deceased in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the day of 1886, and the deponent further saith that the said Jas D. Newbury the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare this said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponent subscribing his name to the said last will as aforesaid as attesting witnesses thereto as aforesaid, the said Jas D. Newbury was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent say not
