I Rounelous Peacock being of a sound mind do make and declare this my last Will.

I will and law to my son Newsum Peacock $4\frac{3}{4}$ acres of land on which my residence now stands, it being the West end of my farm on which I now live. Newsum is to have the said $4\frac{3}{4}$ acres during his life time, and then go to his heirs.

I give and law to my son Walter Peacock the remainder of my farm $40\frac{1}{4}$ acres during his natural life time, and then to his heirs, there being a dividing line established with a plot of the two tracts of land that I gave to Newsum and Walter, my two sons, made by Victor Lewis.

But I Rounelous Peacock have reserved my life estate in the two tracts of land, the whole farm, and my wife's life estate in the two tract of land, the whole farm.

I give to my daughter Elizabeth Peacock all of my personal property of every description, and all of the money that can be found on the place at my death. I also give to my daughter Elizabeth Peacock a room in the house in which I now live as long as she remains single.

Given under my hand and seal, this the 4th day of Oct. One thousand nine hundred and eleven.

Rounelous Peacock, decd

ss. In the Superior Court.
A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Rounelous Peacock deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by H. W. D. Peacock, one of the deponents herein mentioned, and the due execution thereof, by the said Rounelous Peacock by the oath and examination of H. G. Blount and H. C. Thompson, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Rounelous Peacock; that the said Rounelous Peacock in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 4th day of Oct. 1911.

And this deponent further saith, That the said Rounelous Peacock, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Rounelous Peacock was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further that deponent says not,

H. G. Blount,

H. C. Thompson,

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 19th day of Feb., 1912, before me,

C. W. Tenslow,

Clerk Superior Court,
