

North Carolina,
Washington County, }

I C. P. Reid of said county and State being of sound mind do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament as follows:

Item First; I give, bequeath, and devise to my husband, J. M. Reid, all my property, real, personal and mixed during his natural life.

Item Second; After the death of my said husband, I give and devise to my daughter, B. C. Reid, all that part of the farm on which I live lying south of the Plymouth and Columbia public road, including also the land known as the Halliday place, which lies partly on both sides of said public road. Also that part of my home farm lying west of the creek road and north of the public road, extending northward to an oak stump which is on the division line between my home farm and my farm known as the "Walker" farm.

Item Third; After the death of my said husband, I will and devise to the children of my son, J. C. Reid and of my daughter, Lena R. Newberry, my farm known as the "Walker" farm. The children of my said son to have one-half share and the children of my said daughter to have the other half.

Item Four; Subject to my said husband's life estate, I will and devise all my swamp land not covered by above items as follows: One-third to my daughter, B. C. Reid, one-third to the children of my son J. C. Reid, and the other third to the children of my daughter, Lena R. Newberry.

Item Five; I give and bequeath to my daughter, B. C. Reid, all my personal property of every kind.

Item Six; I appoint and constitute my son, J. C. Reid, guardian for his children, and he shall act as such guardian without being required to give any bond or make any report to the court, or keep any account of his said guardianship.

Item Seven; I appoint and constitute my daughter, Lena R. Newberry guardian for her children, and she shall act as such guardian without being required to give any bond, or make any report to the court, or keep any account of her said guardianship.

Item Eight; I name and appoint my daughter, B. C. Reid, executrix to this will and she shall pay all my just debts out of the just money that may come into her possession as such.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of Sept. 1905.

C. P. Reid. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mrs. C. P. Reid as her last will and testament in our presence and we, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto sign the same as witnesses hereto.

A. C. Gay herd.
D. H. Bateman,

Codicil.

My daughter, B. C. Reid, having died since the foregoing will was made, I, Mrs. C. P. Reid, being of sound mind, do change said will by this Codicil, as follows:

I will and devise to my son, Joseph C. Reid, all the land devised to my said daughter in item second of said will, he to pay to my daughter, Lena R. Newberry, Twenty-Five Hundred dollars, the same to be a charge on said land until paid. Fifty Thousand Dollars, to be paid in cash out of insurance on my life - said J. C. Reid's part thereof, as soon as collected, and balance to be secured by note and mortgage on said land and paid in one and two years - $500⁰⁰ each year.

All my personal property, and money on hand and in bank shall be equally divided between my son Joseph C. Reid, and daughter, Lena R. Newberry.

I appoint Joseph C. Reid, executrix to this my will, in place of B. C. Reid, deceased.

Witness my hand and seal, this 11th day April 1908.
