State of North Carolina
 Washington County } In the Superior Court, A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of Josephus W. Snell, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Mary E.
 Snell one of the executors therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Mary E. Snell that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Josephus W. Snell after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of two competent and credible witnesses, to wit, H. J. Morris, A. D. Snell and Mack Patrick, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Josephus W. Snell, having often seen him write, and only believe that the name of the said Josephus W. Snell subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Josephus W. Snell. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Josephus W. Snell. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Josephus W. Snell, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

H. J. Morris,
 A. D. Snell,
 Mack Patrick,

Deemed to and subscribed before me, this 2nd day of May, 1906.
