

State of North Carolina }
Washington County,

Be it remembered that on the 16th day of July, 1868, I Thomas H. Turner of the State and County aforesaid being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say.

Item 1st I leave to my son Sampson R. Turner the land and plantations wherein I live adjoining the lands of Thomas L. Hassell, Sarah Gaylord and Thomas J. Waller during his natural life and then I give and bequeath said land and plantation to my Grand son, Thomas H. Turner the son of Sampson R. Turner to him and his heirs and assigns forever.

Item 2^d I give and bequeath to my son Sampson R. Turner all the rest and residue of my estate of every description to him and his heirs and assigns forever. To said Sampson R. Turner paying to my daughter Eliza Perkins two hundred dollars on the above bequest to stand void.

I nominate constitute and appoint my son Sampson R. Turner and my son in law Henry Perkins sole executors to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other and former wills by me at any time heretofore made, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the year and day above written.

Washington County, In the Probate Court,
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas H. Turner decd., is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate, in and for said County by Sampson R. Turner, one of the executors therein named and the due executing thereof by the said Thomas H. Turner by the oath and examination of Thomas J. Waller and J. T. Hassell the subscribing witnesses.

themselves; who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown herein purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas H. Turner that the said Thomas H. Turner in the presence of these deponents subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date on the seventeenth day of July 1868 — did in the presence of these deponents acknowledge the signing of the said paper writing, and the deponents further say that the said Thomas H. Turner, the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid (or at the time of acknowledging the same) declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and these deponents did then subscribe his and their names at the end of said will as attesting witnesses thereto at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And these deponents and each of them further say that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name and their names as attesting witnesses thereto as aforesaid the said Thomas H. Turner was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent or either of them and further these deponents say not,
