

I, C. H. Walker of the County of Washington and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, and understanding, praise God for the same, do make this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following: I give, devise and bequeath, unto my beloved wife Annie M. Walker and assigns, forever, all my property real, personal and mixed, of what nature or kind soever, and wheresoever the same shall be at the time of my death.

Whereas my son Robert P. is a minor of the age of about seven years and will not be of the full age of twenty one until the 13 day of June 1892 next, therefore, my will and desire is that my wife Annie M. is hereby appointed and constituted guardian of my said son Robert P. I have and do hold the custody and guardianship of his person and estate, until he the said Robert P. shall arrive at the full age of twenty one years.

And I do nominate, constitute and appoint my wife Annie M. sole executrix of this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all and every other will or wills at any time heretofore made by me, and I do declare this to be my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I the said C. H. Walker have hereunto set my hand, this 21 day of January 1889.

(Signed) C. H. Walker
Signed, declared and published by the above named C. H. Walker as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses.

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of C. H. Walker deceased, is exhibited before you, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for each County by Annie M. Walker, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said C. H. Walker, by the oath and examination of E. R. Latham and B. J. Wagon the subscribing witnesses thereto; who, being sworn do so depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper heretofore now shown purporting to be the last will and Testament of C. H. Walker; that he said C. H. Walker, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 21 day of January 1889.

And the deponent further says, that the said C. H. Walker the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And this deponent further says, that at the said time, when the said testator subscribed his name to the said will, as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said C. H. Walker was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent says not
