In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harriett Ambrose, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Wilson Oliver, one of the devisees therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Harriett Ambrose by the oath and examination of J. H. Hardison & C. B. Holmes, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harriett Ambrose; that the said Harriett Ambrose, in the presence of the deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 13th day of Nov. 1913.

And this Depoant further said, that the said Harriet Ambrose the testatrix aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited under her last Will and Testament, and this Depoant did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this Depoant further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the Depoant's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Harriet Ambrose was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to his knowledge, information or belief of this Depoant. And further these Depoants say not.
