

North Carolina,
Washington County,

In the Superior Court
Before C. W. Wenslow, Clerk.

The paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of R. S. Neal, deceased, late of Washington County, North Carolina, is exhibited for probate in open Court by John B. Neal, the Executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of J. C. Galtin, the Clerk of the People's Court of Curawell, N.C., that the said Will was lodged with him for safe keeping with direction for him to turn it over to John B. Neal in the case of the death of said R. S. Neal, and it was further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: E. A. Daniel, Jr., and P. H. Brinkley and J. C. Galtin, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said R. S. Neal, died, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said R. S. Neal subscribed to the said Will and the said Will itself and every part thereof is in the handwriting of the said R. S. Neal and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last named witnesses that the said handwriting was generally known to the acquaintances of the said R. S. Neal.

It is therefore declared and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the Last Will and Testament of the said R. S. Neal and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This the 17th day of November, 1920.
