Washington County.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Lema Willard, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 4th day of June, 1927.

O. W. Tansboro,
Clerk Superior Court.

I, Sarah Jane Astew in the County of Washington, and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following:

First, I hereby direct and empower my executor to sell my real estate to the highest bidder, the proceeds to be used to defray my burial expenses and to erect tombstones at my father's and mother's graves, these stones to cost not less than $250.00 or $300.00 for the two.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to Edna McGill the sum of $20.00.

Third: I give devise and bequeath to Dora Knowles the sum of $20.00.

Fourth, I give devise and bequeath to the rest of my heirs the remainder of the money proceeding from sale of real estate, the same to be equally divided among them.

Fifth, I give devise and bequeath all of my beds and bedding to Patsy Knowles.

Sixth, I hereby appoint J. D. McGill executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I Sarah Jane Astew have to this, my last will and testament, set my hand and seal, this fifteenth day of October A. D. 1924

Sarah J. Astew (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Sarah Jane Astew as and for her last will and testament in the presence of me, who have hereto subscribed our names at her request, as witnesses thereto, in presence of the said testatrix and of each other

Myrtle J. Hassell, Robert H. C.

Ing L. Johnston, Robert H. C.

State of North Carolina } ss. In the Superior Court,
Washington County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah J. Astew, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J. D. McGill, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Sarah J. Astew, by the oath and examination of Myrtle J. Hassell and Ing L. Johnston, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that she is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown her, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah J. Astew; that the said Sarah J. Astew, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of October, 1924.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Sarah J. Askew, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sarah J. Askew was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 6th day of July, 1927, before me,

C. W. Tinslow

I, C. J. Norman, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

First, My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my beloved wife, Lelista Genevieve Norman, all of the property, both real and personal, which I may be possessed of, in fee simple.

Third, I hereby constitute and appoint my said beloved wife, Lelista Genevieve Norman, my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, without bond, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said C. J. Norman, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 17th day of May, 1921.

C. J. Norman, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said C. J. Norman, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
