State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court,
Washington County } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah Jane Banco, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Simon L. Banco, the devisee therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Sarah Jane Banco is proved by the oath and examination of B. B. Spencer, the subscribing witness thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah Jane Banco; that the said Sarah Jane Banco, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 31st day of August, 1909.

And the deponent further saith that the said Sarah Jane Banco the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sarah Jane Banco was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
