A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Sylvester Barnes, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Maggie Barnes, sole devisee therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Sylvester Barnes is proved by the oath and examination of P. H. Bell and George Smith the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Sylvester Barnes, that the said Sylvester Barnes, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 13th day of April, 1932.

And the deponent further saith that the said Sylvester Barnes the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sylvester Barnes was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further this deponent says not.

I, Willie Roberson, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and Testament:

First. My executors, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first money which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved wife, Anna Eliza Roberson, during her natural life time, all the property of which I may die possessed, real, personal and mixed, whenever and wherever the same may be found.

Third. At the death of my said wife, I give and bequeath to my youngest son, W. W. Roberson, my entire estate as mentioned in altero two of this will, subject to the following bequests, which shall be paid by the said W. W. Roberson, and which shall be a lien upon the said property until same are paid:

(a) To Fannie Eliza Roberson and Edith Louise Roberson, jointly, my best bed room suit, including furniture, bed, bedding, etc.

(b) To W. E. Roberson, Tabitha L. Danversport, Eric L. Bowen, and Fannie Whidbee, the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars each, provided that any amount either of them shall be owing me at the time of my death shall be paid to my said wife, and if she be dead, then to my executors, and to be by them equally divided between my children.

(c) At the time of my death, should there not be enough available money on hand to defray my burial expenses, then each of my said children shall be chargeable with their pro rata part of same, and shall be held as a charge against them under this will.

Fourth. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, W. W. Roberson, and my daughter, Tabitha L. Danversport, my lawful executors, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and Testament, with all hand, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Willie Roberson, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 8th, day of June, 1928.

Willie Roberson (Seal)
