I, Mary J. Battinew being of sound do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me made.

Item 1. I devise, bequeath and give to my Husband, Chas. F. Battinew all of my ~~former~~ property real, personal and mixed which I now or may hereafter own, including all of my lands farms and property for and during the term of his natural life and no longer. thereby giving him a life estate in and to all of said property. He to have the sole use and benefit of same during said term, to wit his life.

2. Subject to said life estate I give to my said son, Jimmie for and during his natural and no longer the Home Place. It being the property conveyed by H. T. Freeman to me by deed of record in Washington County, N. C. and after the death of said Jimmie the said Home place devised to him for life shall go to his children and the issue of such as are dead. If said Jimmie shall die without leaving any children or issue of such as are dead then said Home place shall go to said Jimmie's brother and sister or the issue of such as are dead, issue standing in the place of their deceased parents.

3. I give subject to the life estate of my said husband the lands divided to me by the Commissioners who divided the lands of my late father H. T. Freeman, to my two children Henry L. and Lizzie E. said lands to be divided between said children as follows. The canal shall be the dividing line between them, Henry having all on the North of said Canal and Lizzie all on the South. The said Henry and Lizzie shall each have only a life estate in and to said lands so given to them and at their death the said lands so given to them shall respectively go to their living children or the issue of such as are dead, said issue representing their deceased parents. in the event there are no issue of the said Henry or the said Lizzie living at the death of their respective parents (that is children or grandchildren) the said lands so given to each of said parties respectively for their lives shall go to their other brothers and sisters or the issue of such as are dead.

4. In this devise the word issue mean children or grandchildren, the children of deceased parents representing the said deceased parents.

5. I hereby appoint and constitute my said Husband Executor of this my said will.
