

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, W. J. Bell, of the aforesaid County and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

First. My executors, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved wife, Leonida Bell, the tract of land on which I now reside, containing one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, for her natural life, in satisfaction of her claim and and third in all my lands; also all chattels or personal property of which I may die possessed, to use as she may see proper.

Third. I give and devise to my son, W. H. Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at intersection of J. H. Angis and Newberry lines, running thence westwardly along J. H. Angis line to a stake No. 1, about 125 yards west of Newberry line, running thence parallel with said Newberry line northwardly to the middle of the swamp, thence eastwardly with the swamp about 125 yards to said Newberry line, thence southwardly with Newberry line to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Fourth. I give and devise to my son, J. H. Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 1, W. H. Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly along said Angis line, 125 yards to a stake No. 2, thence northwardly parallel with W. H. Bell's line to the middle of the swamp, thence eastwardly with said swamp 125 yards to J. H. Bell's line, thence southwardly with his line to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Fifth. I give and devise to my daughter, Estella Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 2, J. H. Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly along said Angis line to stakes No. 3, thence northwardly parallel with J. H. Bell's line to the middle of the swamp, thence eastwardly with said swamp to J. H. Bell's line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Sixth. I give and devise to my daughter, Victoria Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stakes No. 3, Estella Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly along said Angis line 64 yards to stakes No. 4, thence northwardly parallel with Estella Bell's line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to Estella Bell's line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Seventh. I give and devise to my daughter, Mary Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 4, Victoria Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly with said Angis line 55 yards to stake No. 5, thence northwardly parallel with Victoria Bell's line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to Victoria Bell's line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Eighth. I give and devise to my son, Preston Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 5, Mary Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly with Angis line 55 yards to stake No. 6, thence northwardly parallel with Mary Bell's line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to Mary Bell's line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Ninth. I give and devise to my daughter, Della Forbes, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 6, Preston Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly with said Angis line 55 yards to stake No. 7, thence northwardly parallel with Preston Bell's line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to Preston Bell's line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Tenth. I give and devise to my son, A. L. Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 7, Della Forbes and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly with said Angis line 55 yards to stake No. 8, thence northwardly parallel with Della Forbes line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to Della Forbes' line, thence with his line southwardly to the beginning, to have and to hold in fee simple forever.

Eleventh. I give and devise to my son, Jolly Bell, subject to the life estate of my said wife, that portion of the aforesaid land beginning at stake No. 8, A. L. Bell and J. H. Angis corner, thence westwardly with said Angis line 55 yards to stake No. 9, thence northwardly parallel with A. L. Bell's line to Conabey Creek, thence eastwardly with said creek to A. L. Bell's line, thence eastwardly with his line to the beginning, to have and to hold in full simple form.

Twelfth, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Claudia Bell, my lawful executrix, without bond, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said H. J. Bell, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 14th day of March, 1924.

H. J. Bell. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said H. J. Bell to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other,) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Milusso;

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court, Before the Clerk, Washington County. }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of H. J. Bell, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by A. L. Bell, oldest son of the deceased, and the due execution thereof by the said H. J. Bell is proved by the oath and examination of C. C. Craft and J. T. Terry, the subscribing witnesses thereto who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of H. J. Bell; that the said H. J. Bell, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 14th day of March, 1924.

And the deponent further saith that the said H. J. Bell, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto; and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said H. J. Bell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not Swearingly sworn and subscribed, this 6th day of April, 1936, before me,

C. D. W. Tinslow,

Clerk Superior Court.

With Carolina, } In the Superior Court
Washington County, }

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of H. J. Bell, deceased and the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 6th day of April, 1936.
