

The Last Will and Testament of Mrs. Sallie Brinkley.
 North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Mrs. Sallie Brinkley, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial and shall place a grave marker at my grave, not to cost more than fifty dollars, the money to my daughter.

Second, I give to my faithful friend, Mr. May White, certain articles of personal property; to-wit, one table, which is now at his house, the two vases which are now in my room, the trunk which is now in my room, the electric lamp which is now in my room.

Third, I give to my devoted niece, Mrs. Louise Chal, my wardrobe and contents, except my blue and pink kid jacket, which I desire to give to Lucy Glass, my large grip also to Mrs. Louise Chal.

Fourth, I give to Mary Douglass my blue robe and pearls.

Fifth, I give to Francis Stittman my small grip and contents.

Sixth, I give to Mrs. Lillian Stittman my gold watch.

Seventh, I give to the County House, where I have been living recently, the bed which is now in my room.

Eighth, I give to my faithful friend Dr. T. L. Gray all the rest of my personal property of every kind and description.

Ninth, I hereby name and designate Dr. T. L. Gray my lawful executor to carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament.

Mrs. Sallie Brinkley

L. L. Basnight, witness

John H. Darden, witness

This the 27th day of May, 1936,

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court,
 Washington County, } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Sallie Brinkley, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Dr. T. L. Gray, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mrs. Sallie Brinkley is proved by the oath and examination of L. L. Basnight and John H. Darden, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Sallie Brinkley; that the said Mrs. Sallie Brinkley, in the presence of this defendant, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of May, 1936.

And the defendant further saith that the said Mrs. Sallie Brinkley, the testator, aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and the defendant did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And the defendant further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the defendant's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mrs. Sallie Brinkley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this defendant. And further these defendants say not,

L. L. Basnight

John H. Darden,

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 2nd day of June, 1936, before me,
 C. D. W. Tansboro

Clerk Superior Court,

North Carolina,

Washington County, } In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of Mrs. Sallie Brinkley, deceased and the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 2nd day of June, 1936,

C. D. W. Tansboro,

Clerk Superior Court.
