

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Washington County, } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. H. Ambrose, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of The Superior Court for said County, by W. E. and H. H. Ambrose, the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said J. H. Ambrose is proved by the oath and examination of J. F. Snell, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now known him, purporting to be, the last will and testament of J. H. Ambrose; that the said J. H. Ambrose, in the presence of this defendant subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of Oct. 1923.

And the defendant further saith that the said J. H. Ambrose, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this defendant did therefore subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and this defendant further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the defendant's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. H. Ambrose was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this defendant. And further this defendant says not.

J. F. Snell,

Sown and subscribed, This 24th day of May, 1930, before me

This is the last will and Testament of H. R. Chasson
I give the whole my estate to my wife Alma Chasson
H. R. Chasson (Seal)

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Washington County, }

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of H. R. Chasson, deceased is exhibited for probate in open Court by Alma Chasson, the devisee herein named; and it is therewith proved by the oath and examination of Alma Chasson that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said H. R. Chasson after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit, H. E. Devonport, H. B. Devonport and H. R. Chasson, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said H. R. Chasson, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said H. R. Chasson subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said H. R. Chasson. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said H. R. Chasson. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said H. R. Chasson, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
