

be the last Will and Testament of Martha M. Nail; that the said Martha M. Nail, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 23rd day of May, 1914.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Martha M. Nail, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament; and this deponent did then and there subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness, thence, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thence, as aforesaid, the said Martha M. Nail was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

Sonally sworn and subscribed, this 29th day of Sept., 1920, before me,

C. D. W. Tinsboro,

Clark Superior Court

Clark Superior Court,

North Carolina, Washington County,

I Joseph S. Chissem of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First my Executors hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second I give and devise to my beloved wife Sadie S. Chissem the lot on which I now reside in the Town of Plymouth,

Third I give and devise to my beloved wife Sadie S. Chissem all of my personal property of every kind and description, Fourth I give and devise to my beloved wife Sadie S. Chissem and all of my children, all the Insurance that I have on my life.

Fifth I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Sadie S. Chissem my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament; according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoke and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me made heretofore made.

Sixth I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Sadie S. Chissem Guardian for my minor children or such of them as may be minors living at my death to hold and safely keep to them such funds accruing from my estate to them by virtue of her office as Executrix she to be entitled to act as such, to all intents and purposes and to hold said funds without bond to secure the same and well and truly pay to all of them as they become of age, the aforesaid funds.

In witness whereof I the said Joseph S. Chissem do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 30th day of January 1895,

J. S. Chissem, Seal

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Joseph S. Chissov to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

J. P. Hilliard.

State of North Carolina }
Washington County, } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. S. Chissov, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Sadie S. Chissov, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of H. H. Ward that A. Barden, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, is dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of H. H. Ward that J. P. Hilliard, the other subscribing witness thereto, is also dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said H. H. Ward that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said A. Barden, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said A. Barden subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said A. Barden, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said H. H. Ward that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. P. Hilliard, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said J. P. Hilliard subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said J. P.
Hilliard. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said J. S. Chissov and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 2d day of Oct. 1920.

Lanna Espenschied, (Seal)

State of North Carolina }
Washington County } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of Lanna Espenschied, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Florence Leary the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Florence Leary that the said will was delivered to her by said testatrix for safe keeping, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: B. S. Clark, Mrs. J. D. Balmann & J. E. Stuchard that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Lanna Espenschied having often seen her write, and truly believe that the name of the said Lanna Espenschied subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Lanna Espenschied. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Lanna Espenschied.
It is, therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Lanna Espenschied and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
