

North Carolina,
Washington County,

I, C. B. Craddock, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will & testament -

First, My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses together with all of my just debts out of the first money which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise unto my four children, to wit; Nancy M. Craddock, Isaac B. Craddock, Orasmus Craddock & Helen W. Craddock, all my right title and interest with & including the buildings in the tract of land on which I do now live and known as the Bauer Robinson place & being the tract of land that I and my son R. E. Craddock bought together from Ky Chisson - each of us being half interested. It is my will & desire that neither one of my children shall sell or make any disposition of his or her interest in the said tract of land only to each other.

Third, All of my chattel property of whatever kind, that has not already been given off, shall be equally divided as near as possible among my four children mentioned above.

Fourth, All notes and money that belongs to my estate shall be collected by my executor and equally divided among my four children mentioned in item second.

Fifth, I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend, C. H. Smith, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said C. B. Craddock, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 11th day of Feb, 1911.

J. F. Larkins

J. H. Davis.

purporting to be the last will and testament of C. B. Craddock; that the said C. B. Craddock, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of Feb'y, 1911.

And this deponent further saith, that the said C. B. Craddock the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as submitted by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said C. B. Craddock was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent say not

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of C. B. Craddock, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by C. M. Snel, the executor therein named, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of C. M. Snel that J. F. Larkins, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said C. M. Snel that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. F. Larkins, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said J. F. Larkins subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said J. F. Larkins.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said C. B. Craddock and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
