Solemnly sworn and subscribed before me, this the 11th day of February, 1918.

R. J. Peel,

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Martin County }

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of S. L. Wallace, deceased.

Let the said will, together with this probate, be recorded and filed.

This 11th day of February, 1918.

R. J. Peel,

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,

Martin County,

I, R. J. Peel, Clerk of the Superior Court of the aforesaid County, do hereby certify the foregoing, attached probate and of paper-writing, to be a true and perfect copy of the last will and Testament with the probate thereof, of Samuel L. Wallace, as is of record in my office, in Will Book #5, Beginning at Page 384.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and official seal, this 16th day of Feb. 1918.

(Seal)

R. J. Peel,

Clerk Superior Court of Martin County,

State of North Carolina }
Washington County }

I, H. L. Davenport of said County and state, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my life, do make, publish and declare this my last will and Testament as follows:

Item I. My executor herein after named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral and burial expenses, and all of my just debts out of the first money that shall come into his hands as such executor.

Item II. I give and bequeath in equal proportion, share and share alike to my four sons, namely, L. F., S. B., J. S. and O. L. Davenport, or their heirs, all the residue of my estate, including all personal property of every kind and description, notes and mortgages, cash or money in Bank, having already provided for my daughter Mary Elizabeth Woodley by deeding to her the place where I now live, reserving a life estate in same for myself and wife.

Item III. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, S. B. Davenport, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true meaning and intent thereof, and request that he be allowed to qualify as such executor without bond, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said H. L. Davenport do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 14th day of August, 1916.

H. L. Davenport (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said H. L. Davenport to be his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

B. S. Clark.

State of North Carolina }
Washington County } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of M. L. Davenport deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by S. B. Davenport, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said M. L. Davenport by the oath and examination of B. S. Clark and J. W. Spright, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of M. L. Davenport; that the said M. L. Davenport, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 14th day of August 1916.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said M. L. Davenport the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said M. L. Davenport was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.
