

North Carolina

Washington County } in The Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of B. F. Bailey, deceased, and the same, with the foregoing examination and the Certificates, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 4th day of December 1928

C. V. W. Austin

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina Washington County.

I, Anne C. Davenport of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament

First my executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial to the wishes of my friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debt out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate

Second I give and devise to my beloved husband Alex Davenport the tract of land on which I now reside containing thirty six acres more or less for his natural life in satisfaction of his dower and third in all my lands

Third I give to and devise to my son Roderic Davenport and his heirs in fee simple a tract of land in Sempsons Township Washington County adjoining the lands of M. J. Furlough and others beginning in M. J. Furloughs line running North along M. H. Hairs line to the Second ditch from the main road thence Northwardly along said ditch to Jordan M. Davenports line thence Northwardly along said line of Jordan M. Davenport and others to the corner of J. F. Davenports and others thence along said line of M. J. Furlough an Eastwardly course to M. H. Hairs line the beginning station being a part of the Roderic Davenport deceased tract of land

Fourth I give and bequeath to my son Leslie C. Davenport and his heirs a tract of land beginning at the Second ditch from the main road running Southwardly a long M. H. Hairs line to the River Swamp thence a long the dip River Swamp ^{L. S. Davenport line} a Westwardly course to Silas Davenports line thence Northwardly a long said line of Silas Davenport and others to the Second ditch from Main Road thence a long said ditch to M. H. Hairs line a Eastwardly course said ditch to be the dividing line between my two sons Roderic & Leslie.

Fifth I give and bequeath to my daughter Ella M. Ambrose deceased to her heirs ten dollar to be divided equally between the five heirs

Sixth I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah C. Holmes, and her heirs ten dollar, all to be paid by my executor with in two years from the date of my death out of the money belonging to my estate not otherwise disposed

Seventh it is my desire that after all my debts and burial expense is paid out of my personal property - the remainder to be divided equally between my two sons Adam & Lisle.

in witness whereof I the said Ann E. Davenport do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 28 day of April 1923

Ann^{the} E. Davenport, (Seal)

Said seal published and declared by the said Ann E. Davenport to be her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and her present and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto

Witness Mary E. Davenport,
T. F. Davenport,

Sworn I hereby affirm my truly Anne Lisle E. Davenport my lawful executor to all intents purposes to execute this my last will and testament in witness whereof I the said Ann E. Davenport do hereby set my hand and seal this the 28 day of April 1923.

Ann^{the} E. Davenport (Seal)

Witness Mary E. Davenport
T. F. Davenport

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Washington County } Before the Clerk,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Ann E. Davenport deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Lisle E. Davenport the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Ann E. Davenport is proved by the oath and examination of Mary E. Davenport and T. F. Davenport the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Ann E. Davenport; that the said Ann E. Davenport, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 28th day of April, 1923,

And the deponent further saith that the said Ann E. Davenport, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid the said Ann E. Davenport was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, And further these deponent say not.

T. F. Davenport,
Mary E. Davenport Furlough,

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 22^d day of January, 1924, before me,

C. W. Tenslow,

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,

Washington County } In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of Ann E. Davenport deceased, and the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed,

This 22^d day of January, 1924.

C. W. Tenslow,

Clerk Superior Court.