A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Roberson H. Davenport, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by A. L. Davenport the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of D. E. Hoodley that E. Spruill one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said D. E. Hoodley that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said E. Spruill having often seen him write, and that the name of the said E. Spruill subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said E. Spruill. It is therefore considered by the court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Roberson H. Davenport, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
