 Washington County.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of H. S. Davenport, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Elizabeth H. Davenport, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Elizabeth H. Davenport, that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said H. S. Davenport after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: J. S. Sawyer, Jr., H. A. Swain and Saterie M. Woodley, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said H. S. Davenport, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said H. S. Davenport subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said H. S. Davenport. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned

Witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said H. S. Davenport. It is, therefore, considered by the court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said H. S. Davenport, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
