

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 12 day of December, 1934, before me,

C. W. Ainsworth
Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina }
Washington County } In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of A. C.
Garrett deceased and the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 12 day of December, 1934.

C. W. Ainsworth,
Clerk Superior Court.

July 15, 1924

I hereby devise and bequeath to my wife, Mary Robertson Dixon all the property of whatsoever nature I may be possessed of at my death.

H. A. Dixon

State of North Carolina }
Washington County } In the Superior Court.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of H. A. Dixon, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Mary Robertson Dixon the sole devisee therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of George Patton Dixon that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said H. A. Dixon after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit: J. M. Clagoun, C. L. Hacker and J. H.
Marrows, Jr. that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said H. A. Dixon, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said H. A. Dixon subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the hand writing of the said H. A. Dixon, and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said H. A. Dixon. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said H. A. Dixon and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, } J. H. Marrows, Jr.
