+ codicil of Daniel Faulk, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Serena Allen, the executrix therein mentioned, and she then execution thereof by the said Daniel Faulk by the oath and examination of T. J. Gaylord, L. W. Gaylord & H. M. Large, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament + codicil of Daniel Faulk; that the said Daniel Faulk, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 7th day of Feb, 1914 + Oct. 7th, 1915.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Daniel Faulk the testator aforesaid, died, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament + codicil and this deponent did therefore subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Daniel Faulk, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Serena Allen, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of F. R. Johnson that A. Q. Gaylord, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said F. R. Johnson that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said A. Q. Gaylord having often seen him write, and that the name of the said A. Q. Gaylord subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said A. Q. Gaylord.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof, is the last will and testament + codicil of the said Daniel Faulk and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

F. R. Johnson.
