

Personally sworn and subscribed this the 8th day of July, 1922, before me,

C. W. Turston,
Clerk of Superior Court of Washington County,

State of North Carolina,
Washington County, In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of W. J. Harris, deceased. Let said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This the 8th day of July, 1922.

C. W. Turston,
Clerk Superior Court -
Washington County,

North Carolina, Washington County,

I Washington Flood, being of sound and disposing mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this to be my last will and testament and hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all wills and testaments heretofore made by me:

1st. I give and devise to my beloved daughter, Mamie Hassell, one half of my real estate in the town of Plymouth, N. C. and to begin on 4th Street at the Constanther lands and running thence along 4th Street to include the dwelling house which I resided.

2nd. I give and devise to my beloved grand-daughter, Lucy Joyner, the other one-half of my real estate to include the house next to lot number "2" on the map of the town of Plymouth.

3rd. After paying my just debts and funeral expenses it is my will that all moneys found belonging to my estate be equally divided between my beloved daughter Mamie Hassell and the heirs of Della Joyner, Mamie Hassell to receive one-half of the amount so found or due my estate:

I hereby appoint my true friend, J. D. Moore administrator of this my last will and testament.

This 27th day February, 1920.

Washington Flood

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Washington Flood to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Washington Flood, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J. D. Moore, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Washington Flood by the oath and examination of P. H. Bell and H. H. Swann, the subscribing witnesses thereof, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Washington Flood; that the said Washington Flood, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of February, 1920.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Washington Flood the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereof, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereof, as aforesaid, the said Washington Flood was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.

Sworn and subscribed, this 8th day of August, 1922, before me,
