I, A. C. Gaylord of the County of Washington, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, in words and figures as follows.

Item first: I give and bequeath to my wife Julia S. Gaylord absolutely, all my property of every description.

Item second: I nominate and appoint my wife Julia S. Gaylord my sole executrix to execute this my will, and direct her to pay all my just debts at once. I do not want the mortgages I may hold at my death foreclosed without giving the mortgagees reasonable time, say twelve months, to arrange with her to pay them and I hope if necessary she will grant them further indulgence.

Item third: I give all my property to my said wife feeling assured that she will deal pretty with my children. I leave this matter with her.

Item fourth: Any debt that my brother A. T. Gaylord may owe me at my death I give to him.

This will is written, signed and sealed by me with my own hand and every word, letter and figure is in my own handwriting. Done at my office in Plymouth N. C. this the 5th day of August 1896.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of A. C. Gaylord, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Julia S. Gaylord, the executrix therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Julia S. Gaylord that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said A. C. Gaylord after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: F. B. Johnston, Clarence Latham and J. C. Everts, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said A. C. Gaylord, having often seen him write, and with believe that the name of the said A. C. Gaylord is the
