

said John B. Ward, in the presence of these deponents, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 30th day of March, 1910.

And this Depoent further saith, that the said John B. Ward the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament and this Depoent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this Depoent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the Depoent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said John B. Ward was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this Depoent. And further these Depoents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,
this 2nd day of July, 1921,

By - J. S. Robinson, Dep. C. S. C.

North Carolina,

Washington County.

Know all Men by these Presents;

That I, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Freeman, of the State and County aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following, that is to say:

1. My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to my station in life, and shall pay all funeral expenses out of the first money coming into his hands belonging to my estate, and shall cause my grave to be marked by a suitable monument of stone and shall pay for the same out of the first money coming into his hands belonging to my estate as aforesaid.

2. My executor hereinafter named shall pay all of my just debts which may be owing by me at the time of my death.

3. I give and bequeath to Miles T. Dickerson, son of T. J. Dickerson, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars which said legacy shall be paid by my executor hereinafter named as soon as my just debts and funeral expenses have been paid, as aforesaid and if it should become necessary to do so, in order to pay said legacy, my executor hereinafter named is authorized, empowered and directed to sell a sufficient amount of personal property owned by me at the time of my death for that purpose, but if there should be sufficient cash money in his hands after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, as aforesaid, then he shall pay said legacy out of any cash which he may have in his hands belonging to my estate.

4. I give and devise to Miles T. Dickerson, son of T. J. Dickerson, forty acres of land whereon he now resides bounded by the main road leading from Plymouth to Roper; bounded by the Garrett lane leading from the Plymouth and Roper road to the canal bridge said forty acres of land to be selected by him out of a tract of land as described in a deed from J. J. Sillman and wife, Christine E. Sillman, to Mrs. Ann C. Long, dated January 5th, 1888, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Washington County, North Carolina, in Book AB, Page 459, to which reference is made, said tract of land having descended to me upon the death of my sister, the said Mrs. Ann C. Long, as her sole heir at law, to have and to hold for and during the term of his natural life with remainder, after his death, to his son, William Earl Sillman, in fee. It is my express desire and intention that the said Miles T. Sillman shall have the right to select said forty acres out of the said tract of land above referred to and shall cause the lines of the same, as selected by him, to be run and marked by some surveyor to be selected by him who shall prepare a description of the same by metes and bounds which shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Washington County and shall have and hold the same as herein limited. In the event that the said Miles T. Sillman should die before me then the said William Earl Sillman, his heirs or representatives, shall have the right to select the same and cause the lines of the same to be run and marked as herein provided.

5. All of the rest and residue of my real estate which I may own at the time of my death, after taking out the forty acres heretofore devised to Miles T. Sillman for life, with remainder to his son, William Earl Sillman, including the land conveyed to me by deed from J. F. Norman, Trustee, dated July 2nd, 1888, and recorded in the Register's Office aforesaid in Book CC, Page 89, and also the residue of the land which I inherited from my sister, Mrs. Ann C. Long, as aforesaid, and all other real property which I may own at the time of my death, I give and devise to Mrs. N. D. Paramore, daughter of J. J. Sillman, to have and to hold to her and her heirs and assigns in fee simple, forever.

6. All of the rest and residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, I give, devise and bequeath to the said Mrs. N. D. Paramore, daughter of J. J. Sillman, to have and to hold absolutely.

7. I hereby nominate and appoint Miles T. Sillman as executor of this my last Will and Testament - to execute the same according to its true intent and meaning, hereby revoking and declaring utterly null and void any and all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 27th day of April, 1920.

Elizabeth P. Freeman. (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said testator, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do hereunto subscribe our names as attesting witnesses thereof.
