

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, S. H. Furlough, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my son N. S. Furlough, all the real estate I own at my death consisting of 24 and 7/8 acres, and known as the Rowe land, lots #3, and #4, bought of Miss Annie Rowe, and Mrs. M. C. Rowe, this is given to my son, N. S. Furlough and his heirs, in fee simple, together with all of my chatted property, whatever same may be.

Third, This will shall not be in effect until my death, and my beloved wife's death, Caroline Furlough.

Fourth, I hereby appoint my son, N. S. Furlough, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said S. H. Furlough, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 30th day of March, 1917,

S. H. Furlough ^{his} (Seal)
Deceased

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said S. H. Furlough, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In the Superior Court -
Before the Clerk,

The paper-writing here attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of S. H. Furlough, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Washington County, North Carolina, by H. C. Furlough, the executor therein named, and therefore the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of S. J. Hassell, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and of A. L. Holmes, as follows:

S. J. Hassell, being duly sworn, deposes and says that she is a subscribing witness to the said paper-writing now shown her, purporting to be the last will and testament of S. H. Furlough, and that she saw S. H. Furlough execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said S. H. Furlough, deceased; and that at the time of its execution said S. H. Furlough was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory. Affiant further swears that J. L. Hassell, the other subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said J. L. Hassell is now dead.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Althea Wiley of the above named County and State do make and declare this to be my last will and testament.

I give, bequeath and devise unto my beloved husband Wm. Wiley all of the property, both real and personal, of which I die possessed, to be his in fee simple.

In witness whereof, I, the said Althea Wiley, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 13. day of September 1924.

Althea Wiley. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Althea Wiley to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, do hereby subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In the Superior Court, Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Althea Wiley, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Wm. Wiley the devise therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Althea Wiley is proved by the oath and examination of D. E. Woodley and E. S. Woodley the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Althea Wiley; that the said Althea Wiley, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 13th day of September, 1924. And the deponent further saith that the said Althea Wiley the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Althea Wiley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
