A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Herman, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by William Hobb one of the devisees therein named, the executor named being dead, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of John H. Darden that H. J. Mercer one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead and it is also proved by the oath and examination of John H. Darden that H. F. Brasley the other subscribing witness thereto is also dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said John H.
