

I, A. T. Gaylord being of sound mind and memory knowing the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament

1st. That my relatives shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives,

2nd. I will and bequeath all of my property real and personal property of every description to my beloved sister, Nappie Everett.

3rd. I appoint Nappie Everett executrix to this will.

A. T. Gaylord.

Witness:

J. C. Everett

V. E. Everett.

May 21st, 1914.

State of North Carolina,

Washington County, } ss In the Superior Court

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A. T. Gaylord, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Nappie Everett the executrix therein mentioned, and she does execute thereof by the said A. T. Gaylord by the oath and examination of J. C. Everett & V. E. Everett, the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of A. T. Gaylord; that the said A. T. Gaylord, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 21st day of May, 1914.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said A. T. Gaylord the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the same time and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said A. T. Gaylord was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not,

J. C. Everett,
