

given to him being the lot next to J. A. Alexander's line, and adjoining the lot on which I am building the new house.

In testimony whereof I the said H. N. Norman do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 12 day of Sept. 1928.

H. N. Norman, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said H. N. Norman, to be a codicil to his last will and testament in our presence, and we, in his presence (and in the presence of each other) have at his request hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

Jerry Brackhouse, Wit.

Codicil #1. Since writing this Will I have sold the old home place and my desire is that the new house built on North Street to be in place of the old home that I sold. Also I devised to S. A. Norman in in section 5 of this will two vacant lots, one of these lots I have used to build the new house on, and this will leave only one vacant lot instead of two for S. A. Norman as set out Section 5th of this will, it being the lot next to J. A. Alexander's line.

Wch. 31-1928.

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina,

Washington County }

In the Superior Court,

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of J. N. Gray, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by D. E. Stoddley, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of D. E. Stoddley that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. N. Gray after his death.

And it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: D. E. Woodley, E. S. Woodley, and J. H. Starr, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. N. Gray, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said J. N. Gray, subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said J. N. Gray. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said J. N. Gray;

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said J. N. Gray and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 13th day of August 1933.
