

Personally sworn and subscribed, this 3rd
day of March, 1933, before me:
C. D. W. Ansbore.

Clk. Superior Court.

North Carolina,
Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Larkin Smith, deceased. Let said will, together with the probate be recorded and filed.

This 3d day of March, 1933,

C. D. W. Ansbore,

Clk. Superior Court,

E. J. Hayes,
Edward Spruill.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, J. L. Hassell, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, out of the first money coming into his hands out of my estate, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all of my just debts.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, the home and lots on which we now reside, running through from Sixth Street to seventh street, containing lots to have and to hold during the term of her natural life. Then the said home and lots shall go to my brother H. E. Hassell, or his heirs.

Third. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, the store and lot including my office, situated on main Street, in full sample.

Fourth. I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida, all of my chattel property of every description, and mining if any, also my charitable brother benefit, to handle as she sees fit.

Fifth. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Ida Hassell, my lawful executrix, without bond, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause hereof, I hereby revoke and declare all other wills and testaments void made by me heretofore.

In witness whereof I the said J. L. Hassell, do hereby set my hand and seal this the... day of February 1933,

J. L. Hassell. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, and declared by the said J. L. Hassell to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other,
do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Washington County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. L. Hassell, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clk. of the Superior Court for said county, by Ma Hassell, the executing therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said J. L. Hassell by the oath and examination of C. A. Swain and G. L. Swain, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who each being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. L. Hassell; that the said J. L. Hassell, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the -- day of February, 1921.

And the deponent further saith, each for himself, that the said J. L. Hassell, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. L. Hassell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 20th day of August, 1923, before me,

C. A. Swain
