Will of Jas. S. Harrison.

State of North Carolina }
County of Washington }
Township of Plymouth }

In the name of God, Amen.

I, James Sylvester Harrison, of the State of North Carolina, County of Washington, Township of Plymouth, Being of sound mind and bodily health, do make this as my last Will and Testament.

First. A decent burial for myself.

Second. I give and bequeath to my wife, Jessie W. Harrison, all of the Real, and Personal property, of which I am possessed at my death as long as she stays my widow, but, if she marries again, one Third of the Farm is to be rented out and placed on the Farm in repaire. Third, at the death of said Jessie W. Harrison she is to have a decent burial and Tombstone, then the said Farm to be sold, and after all expenses are paid, the rest to be divided equally among all my lawful living heirs, I leave my wife Jessie W. Harrison to take charge of said Farm, and all I leave, to use as she pleases, during the term of her natural life without Bond or Security.

When the Farm is sold, there is to be exempted, one quarter of an Acre, 160 yards from the back door of the dwelling in which I now reside, North-west to an Apple Tree, for burial purposes, I give that to all my heirs to be used for that purpose. Feb 25, 1920.

Signed. James Sylvester Harrison (Seal)
