Will of L. C. Harriman } Affidavit

The undersigned being duly sworn says:

That L. C. Harriman died domiciled in the above named State and County on or about the 2nd day of May 1921, that after the death of the said L. C. Harriman the undersigned found the paper writing this day offered for probate as the Will of the said L. C. Harriman among other valuable papers and effects of the said L. C. Harriman, in a trunk in the bedroom of the said L. C. Harriman, in which trunk and along with the said paper writing this day offered as a will were also found the combination of his safe, insurance policy on the house in which the said Harriman and the undersigned lived, several assignments of an interest in a judgment against the said L. C. Harriman made by sundry heirs at law of Francis Harriman, several notes, bills and other valuable papers, the property of said L. C. Harriman.

Will of L. C. Harriman } Affidavit

The undersigned witnesses, each for themselves, being duly sworn, say:

That they know the late L. C. Harriman who died at Washington Tenn on or about the 2nd day of May 1921, domiciled in the County and State above named. That they have seen the paper writing this day offered for probate as the last will and testament of the said L. C. Harriman, dated March or November 1919, and signed by the said L. C. Harriman. That they have examined said paper writing and each and every part of the same, that they know the handwriting of the said L. C. Harriman and that the undersigned truly believe that such will and every part thereof is in the handwriting of the said L. C. Harriman, whose will it purports to be and whose name is subscribed thereto and that the signature to said will is, in the opinion of the undersigned and as they truly believe, the signature of the said L. C. Harriman.

The undersigned also say that they knew the said L. C.
Harriman during all the year 1919, living near by the said L. C. Harriman and had frequent occasions to see him and that in their opinion during said month the said L. C. Harriman was of sound and disposing mind and memory.

 Washington County, } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of L. C. Klammer, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Ella L.
 Klammer, widow of L. C. Klammer; and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of Ella L. Klammer that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said L. C. Klammer after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: J. E. Reid, Dr. H. H. Ward and H. S. Davenport that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said L. C. Klammer, having often seen their write, and truly believe that the name of the said L. C.
 Klammer subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said L. C. Klammer. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said L. C. Klammer. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said L. C. Klammer, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
