C. V. W. Auckow

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Caroline Hassell of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, my executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my nephew, W. W. Robertson all of the real estate of which I may die possessing in fee simple forever.

Third, it is my will and desire that after my death and all funeral expenses and just debts are paid in full by my executor, that should there be any residue remaining from my personal estate that same shall be equally divided between Abigail McGill, Lillie Williams, Jennie Lewis, Dora Windley, and Ralph Harrell, my nieces and nephews.

Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my nephew, W. W. Robertson my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In writing whereof, I, the said Caroline Hassell, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 13th day of March, 1929.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Caroline Hassell to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
