A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Edward Spruill deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by P. H. Bell, in whose possession said will was deposited. The execute therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Edward Spruill by the oath and examination of P. H. Bell and Fannie O. Bell the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Edward Spruill; that the said Edward Spruill, in the presence of the deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 15th day of July, 1928.

And this Depovent further saith, that the said Edward Spruill the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Edward Spruill was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further this deponent saith not.

Sworn and subscribed, this 24th day of December, 1927, before me

In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Holmes deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Charles D. Holmes the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of L. J. Spear that W. H. Hardison one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of L. J. Spear that C. Spruill the other subscribing witness thereto is also dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said L. J. Spear that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. H. Hardison having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. H. Hardison subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said W. H. Hardison and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said L. J. Spear that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. Spruill having often seen him write, and that the name of the said C. Spruill subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said C. Spruill. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Mary Holmes and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed
