

Sworn and subscribed to before me,
This the 21st day of June, 1928.

C. W. Tinsboro

Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina,
Hastings County.

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Dr. B. F. Halsup, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by the executing trustee named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of John H. Speight, F. D. Wilson, J. N. Chesson, and J. E. Phelps that the said Will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of John H. Speight, F. D. Wilson, J. N. Chesson and J. E. Phelps, who are competent and credible witnesses, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup, subscribed to the said Will, and the said Will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup. And it is further proved by the evidence of the parties above named that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup.

It is, therefore, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said Dr. B. F. Halsup and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This the 21st day of June, 1928.

C. W. Tinsboro

Clerk of the Superior Court

State of North Carolina,
Hastings County.

I, F. M. Jarrell, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do declare this my last will and testament:

First, I give and bequeath to Belle Hill, wife of Alex. H. Hill, the sum of five dollars, ($5.00).

Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Roberta B. Jarrell, all the residue of my estate, both real and personal property, for her natural life.

Third, I give and bequeath to Roberta B. Peace all my property, both real and personal, after taking out the devises and legacies above mentioned, to have and to hold to her and her heirs in fee simple, subject however, to the life estate of my said wife as provided in the second paragraph hereof.

Fourth, And whereas the said Roberta B. Peace is a minor, it is my will and desire that my wife, Roberta B. Jarrell, be and she is hereby constituted and appointed guardian of the said Roberta B. Peace to have and to hold the custody of her estate until the said Roberta B. Peace shall arrive at the full age of twenty-one years.

Fifth, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Roberta B. Jarrell, my lawful executrix, to all intents and purposes, without bond, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said F. M. Jarrell, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 19th day of December, 1912.

F. M. Jarrell, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said F. M. Jarrell to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses hereunto,

B. S. Clark (Seal)

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of F. M. Jarrell, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Robert B. Peace, one of the decessors therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of John P. Royal that J. T. Hughes, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of J. C. Gattin that B. S. Clark, the other subscribing witness thereto is also dead. And it is also further proved by the oath and examination of the said John P. Royal that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. T. Hughes, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said J. T. Hughes subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said J. T. Hughes, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said J. C. Gattin that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said B. S. Clark, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said B. S. Clark subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said B. S. Clark. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said F. M. Jarrell and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

J. C. Gattin
John P. Royal,

This 12th day of July, 1928.

I, R. M. Phelps, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my Last Will and Testament.

1st. My executors, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts, out of the first monies which may come into their hands belonging to my estate.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my son Richard, one hundred dollars ($100.00) in cash.

3rd. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Alma Clay Phelps, my entire estate, both real and personal, during her natural life, or as long as she remains a widow.

4th. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Alice, my entire estate, both real and personal, subject to my beloved wife's life estate or until she marries again, as specified in paragraph three of this will.

5th. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Alma Clay Phelps, and daughter, Alice, my lawful executors, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my Last Will and Testament, without bond, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof.

6th. I hereby revoke and declare utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said R. M. Phelps, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 27 day of August, 1927.

R. M. Phelps (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said R. M. Phelps to be his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
