Washington County,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Nancy Johnston, deceased, is exhibited before us, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Charlie and Sam Johnston the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Nancy Johnston by the oath and examination of R. H. Johnston, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Nancy Johnston; that the said Nancy Johnston, in the presence of this defendant, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 29th day of March, 1909.

And this defendant further saith, that the said Nancy Johnston, the testatrix, aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name, as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament; and this defendant did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix, and this defendant further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last well as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, she said Nancy Whistler was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further this deponent says not.

Washington County, } In the Superior Court.

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Whistler deceased, is exhibited for probate in your Court by Charles W. Tinsley, the witness therein named; and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of P. H. Brinkley that F. R. Whistler one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead, And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said P. H. Brinkley that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said F. R. Whistler, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said F. R. Whistler subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said F. R. Whistler.

North Carolina
Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Nancy Whistler, deceased, let the said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 3<sup>d</sup> day of March, 1920.

C. W. Tinsley,

Clark Superior Court,

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, Daniel Fauley, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

Item One: I give and devise to my son, King Daniel Fauley, my home tract of land of ten acres, together with all outbuildings and buildings thereon, belonging to the same, to him, his heirs and assigns in fee simple.

Item Two: I give and devise to my daughter, Anna Allie, the Miller tract of land, containing ten acres adjoining the Peter Bell and Sutton land, with all the outbuildings thereon, to her, her heirs and assigns in fee simple forever.

Item Three, I give and devise to my sons, King Daniel and Edward Fauley, and my daughter, Anna Allie, my eighty acre tract of land known as the Harris tract to them, thus heirs and assigns, as tenants in common, in fee simple.

Item Four, I hereby constitute and appoint my daughter, Anna Allie, executors to execute this my last will and testament. I require her to settle and pay all my just debts.
