Clerk of the Superior Court of Washington County.

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of H. H. Bellemare, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and the certificate be recorded and filed.

This 27th day of September, 1932.

C. W. Tensbore,

Clerk of the Superior Court, of Washington County.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Bettie D. Huddleston, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First: My executor, herein after named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses and the erection of a suitable monument, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my son, J. E. C. Huddleston, the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars in cash. I also give to him all notes, mortgages and other claims I now hold against him, and hereby direct that my executor see that same are properly cancelled.

Third: I give and devise to my daughter, Mallie J. Ausborn, five hundred ($500.00) Dollars in cash.

Fourth: I give and devise to my daughter, Willie J. Forbes, five hundred ($500.00) Dollars in cash.

Fifth: I give and devise to my grand son Van G. Martin, my suit of furniture, bed and clothing which I am now using. In addition to the above bequest, I give and devise to my said grand son Van G. Martin, Two hundred ($200.00) Dollars in cash from the proceeds of my estate.

Sixth: I give and devise to my trusty and loyal friend, and executor, Geo. H. Hardison, Two hundred ($200.00) Dollars in cash from the proceeds of my estate.

Seventh: I leave in trust with my executor Fifty ($50.00) Dollars in cash for the purpose of taking care of my plot in the Episcopal cemetery; said money to be paid at such time as the said trustee deems necessary the said trustee to serve without bond.

Eighth: Now, therefore, after taking into account all the above devises whatevers there may be left of my estate, I desire it to be equally divided between my said three children, Mallie J. Ausborn, Willie J. Forbes and J. E. C. Huddleston, to share and share alike. This not to include any money left me by my daughter Nova J. Mizzell, this to be provided for by a separate codicile.

Ninth: I hereby instruct my executor Geo. H. Hardison to sell my house at his discretion and divide the proceeds equally with other monies from my estate, unless I should come into possession of money left me by my daughter Eva J. Higgin in which event I give and devise to my grand-aun Van S. Martin the said house and lot to hold during his life time, then to his children.

Tenth; I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend Geo. A. Hardison my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby naming and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me herefore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Patti V. Johnstone, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 16 day of Aug 1932,

Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Patti V. Johnstone to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, (and in the presence of each other,) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Witnesses:

W. E. Hales
Jas. H. Norman

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court, Washington County } Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Geo. A. Hardison, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone is proved by the oath and examination of W. E. Hales and Jas. H. Norman, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone; that the said Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone, is in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16th day of August, 1932.

And the deponent further saith that the said Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mrs. Patti V. Johnstone was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

W. E. Hales
Jas. H. Norman,

Swearingly sworn and subscribed,
the 26th day of January, 1933, before me,
