A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Flora E. Snell deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Joseph W. Snell, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Flora E. Snell is proved by the oath and examination of H. L. Hartow and E. S. Arps the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscriber of witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Flora E. Snell, that the said Flora E. Snell in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 22nd day of December 1916.

And the deponent further said that the said Flora E. Snell the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And this deponent further said that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Flora E. Snell was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not.

H. L. Hartow.

E. S. Arps.

Personally Sworn and subscribed, this 15th day of March 1929, before me.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of Flora E. Snell, deceased and the same with the foregoing examination and this certificate are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 15th day of March 1929.

C. V. W. Cushman. Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, Enoch Lufford, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this, my last will and testament, revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

Item 1. I will and desire that my friends and relatives shall give my body a decent burial, and that my executor, hereinafter named, place at my grave a simple and inexpensive tombstone or marker.

Item 2. I will that all my just debts be paid out of my estate by my executor hereinafter named.

Item 3. I will and devise my house and lot and all my household and kitchen furniture therein, on Third Street, in the Town of Plymouth, North Carolina, the same being the eastern half of Lot No. 74, to the Trustees of Washington Street Baptist Church of Plymouth, North Carolina, to have and to hold, unto them, their successors and assigns, to be used by said Baptist Church, as a home for the pastor of said Church, with the privilege, however, of selling and conveying the same, if it is for the best interest of the membership and congregation of said Church.

Item 4. I will and bequeath my notes, executed by C. L. Groves, and R. J. Sydenstricker and secured by Deed of Trust, to the Trustees of said Washington Street Baptist Church, each note to be collected when due, and the proceeds therefrom to be applied to the pastor's salary of said Church, when so collected.

Item 5. All the rest and residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, I will and bequeath to the Methodist Protestant Orphanage at High Point, North Carolina, and the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, North Carolina, share and share alike.

Item 6. I nominate and appoint Zeb Vance Norman, my late wife's grandson, Executor, Without bond, of this my last Will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 11th day of October, 1927.
