Sterling M. Gann,
Clerk Superior Court.

Recorded in Washington County,

Oct. 20, 1916.

North Carolina, Washington County,

I George Mann of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare the my last will and testament:-

1st.- I give and bequeath to my dear wife for her natural life my farm where I now live the said land being known as the "Gaylord" tract of land. I further give to her for her natural life all of my horses, farming utensils together with all other chattel property that I may own at the time of my death.

2nd.- I give and bequeath to my son Dr. William Mann my farm known as the "Gaylord Tract" of land where I now live, however receiving therein the life estate of my dear wife.

3rd.- I give and bequeath to my grand son Willie Graham our lot situated in the town of Chatham N.C. and adjoining the lands of the heirs of William Nichols and others and lying and being on Mann's tract.

4th.- I give to my daughter Nannie Graham the sum of Five Hundred dollars and to my son Frank Mann the sum of One Hundred dollars to be paid out of my estate by my executors hereinafter named.

5th.- That after the death of my dear wife, it is my will that all the chattel property left of my estate shall be equally divided between my son Dr. William Mann and my daughter Nannie Graham.

I hereby appoint my son Dr. William Mann my executor of this my last will and testament and he shall not be required to give bond.

In witness whereof I, the said George Mann do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 13th day September 1915.

George Mann (Seal)

Signed, sealed, declared by the said George Mann to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other,
do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George Mann, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county by William Mann, the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said George Mann by the oath and examination of D. M. Basingh - H. N. Horwath, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George Mann; that the said George Mann, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 13th day of September, 1915.

And this deponent further saith, that the said George Mann the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George Mann was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

D. M. Basingh
