C. D. Turnbow,
Clerk Superior Court,

W. N. Hardison
Thomas N. Davenport.

North Carolina, } ss. In the Superior Court,
Washington County.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Riddin Hassell, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 29th day of June, 1920,

C. D. Turnbow,
Clerk Superior Court,

I N. B. Mizell of the Town of Roper County Washington and State of North Carolina being of sound mind & memory do make public and declare this to be my last will and testament to wit

First all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be first fully Paid

Second I give devise and bequeath all the rest residue and remainder of my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife Nita Mizell to have to hold to her my said wife and to her heirs and assigns forever

Third but on this special trust out of my estate she is to pay all of my Brothers and Sisters one thousand dollars equally divided among them share & share alike out of the thousand dollars

Fourth I nominate and appoint my said wife Nita Mizell to be the executrix of this Will without bond,

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal

This 7 day of November 1912

N. B. Mizell

State of North Carolina, } ss. In the Superior Court,
Washington County.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of N. B. Mizell, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Nita Mizell, the executrix therein named, and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of Nita Mizell that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said N. B. Mizell after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit, B. S. Clark, P. M. Brinkley and D. D. Clayton that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said N. B. Mizell, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said N. B. Mizell subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said N. B. Mizell. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said N. B. McGill. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said N. B. McGill and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
