having often seen him write, and that the name of the said D.W. Barnes subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said D.W. Barnes. It is therefore considered by the court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said P.S. Woodley, and the same is ordered to be recorded and feled.

W. J. Mercer.

W. F. Beasley.

Over.

State of North Carolina,
Washington County. } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Macy Norman, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Hilliard Webb one of the devisees therein named, the executor named being dead; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of John H. Darden that W. J. Mercer one of the subscribing witness thereto is dead and it is also proved by the oath and examination of John H. Darden that W. F. Beasley the other subscribing witness thereto is also dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said John H. Darden that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. J. Mercer having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. J. Mercer subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said W. J. Mercer, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said John H. Darden that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. F. Beasley having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. F. Beasley subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said W. F. Beasley.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Macy Norman, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 31st day of January, 1925. John H. Darden

C. M. Armstrong, C.S.C.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, C. G. Garrett, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

First. My executrix, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into her hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my sister, Lonia Hyman, the two lots I own in Mt. Pleasant Roper, lying on the East side of road leading from Roper to Nancy School House, known as Lots Nos. 6 and 7, as designated in two deeds from John L. Roper Lumber Co. to C. G. Garrett, one recorded in Reg. Deeds office Washington County, in Book #42, page 214, and the other in Book #47, page 323, in fee simple forever.

Third. I give and bequeath to my grand daughter, Annie Copeland, daughter of Lucinda Garrett, the lot designated as No. 5, adjoining the lots designated in second item of this will, referred to in deed from Jno. L. Roper Lumber Co., to C. G. Garrett, recorded in Reg. Deeds office Washington County, in Book #47, page 323; Provided, that the said Annie Copeland should return to Washington County and build on same before January 1st, 1934, otherwise this lot shall revert to the said Lonia Hyman and her heirs in fee simple forever.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to my said sister, Lonia Hyman, all other property of which I may die possessed, both real and personal, to dispose of as she deems proper.

Fifth. I hereby constitute and appoint my said sister, Lonia Hyman, my lawful executrix (without bond) to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof; hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said C. G. Garrett, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 20th day of May, 1924.

C. G. his x mark Garrett. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said C. G. Garrett, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other),
