

presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of October, 1927.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Sarah J. Astus, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sarah J. Astus was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say next.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 6th day of July, 1927, before me,

C. W. Tinslow
Clerk Superior Court.

Clerk Superior Court,

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, C. J. Norman, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

First, My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my beloved wife, Celestia Genevieve Norman, all of the property, both real and personal, which I may die possessed of, in fee simple.

Third, I hereby constitute and appoint my said beloved wife, Celestia Genevieve Norman, my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, without bond - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me herebefore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said C. J. Norman, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 17th day of May, 1921.

C. J. Norman, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said C. J. Norman, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of C. J. Norman, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Celestia Genevieve Norman, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said C. J. Norman by the oath and examination of J. H. Smith and John H. Gardner, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of C. J. Norman; that the said C. J. Norman, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of May, 1921.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said C. J. Norman, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and it exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said C. J. Norman was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further this deponent says not.
