

North Carolina, Washington County

I, Francis Norman being of sound mind, yet realizing the uncertainty of life, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, and hereby appoint my mother Francis Walker, my lawful Executor to fulfill said last will and testament.

First. I will and bequeath to my mother Francis Walker, all the 20 acres of land where I now live, give me by the will of my Father Providence Walker.

Second - I will and bequeath to my mother Francis Walker all other property both real and personal after my just debts and burial expenses have been paid.

Francis Norman

Date Dec. 16, 1915

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Washington County }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Francis Norman, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Francis Walker the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Francis Norman by the oath and examination of C. W. Auge and John A. H^c Hair, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Francis Norman; that the said Francis Norman, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16th day of Dec. 1915.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said Francis Norman the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Francis Norman was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, ~~information~~ information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, }
