A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James L. Norman, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Ella Norman executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said James L. Norman is proved by the oath and examination of D. E. Woodley and Josh B. Woodley the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of James L. Norman; that the said James L. Norman, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of March, 1932.

And the deponent further saith that the said James L. Norman the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said James G. Norman was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

I, Caroline Hassell of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, my executors hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my nephew, W. W. Robertson all of the real estate of which I may die possessing in fee simple forever.

Third, it is my will and desire that after my death and all funeral expenses and just debts are paid in full by my executor, that should there be any residue remaining from my personal estate that same shall be equally divided between Abolind McGill, Lillie Williams, Jennie Lewis, Dora Windley, and Ralph Harrell, my nieces and nephews.

Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my nephew, W. W. Robertson my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof. hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In writing whereof, I, the said Caroline Hassell, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 13th day of March, 1929.

Caroline ^{her} Hassell. (Seal)
