Sworn to and subscribed before me,

This the 31 day of July, 1933,

C. W. Tinsbar,

4 Clerk of the Superior Court.

North Carolina

Washington County

In the Superior Court

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of R. J. Peal, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Sadie F. Peal, the sole executrix thereto named; and it is therewith proved by the oath and examination of Sadie F. Peal that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said R. J. Peal after his death. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of other competent and credible witnesses, to wit, Fannie M. Peal, Margaret M. Muse and Del Reuse, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said R. J. Peal, having often seen him write and verily believe that the name of the said R. J. Peal, subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said R. J. Peal. And it is further proved by the witness of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said R. J. Peal. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the Last Will and Testament of the said R. J. Peal, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This July 31, 1933.

C. W. Tinsbar,

Clerk of the Superior Court,

North Carolina, Tyrrell County.

I, H. N. Norman, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, thank God for same, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

The following Codicils, not being properly witnessed, are not probated or made a part of the foregoing will, but are copied here and filed with the will only as memorandum:

Codicil No. (1)

North Carolina, Tyrrell County,

I, H. N. Norman of said County and State, make this codicil to my last Will and Testament published by me and dated the 31st day of July, 1926, which I ratify and confirm, except as the same shall be changed hereby.

Whereas by my will above mentioned, I gave and devised to my nephew S. A. Norman two vacant Town Lots by the 5th Street of this will, and whereas I have since sold my old home place, and my desire is, that the new house now being built by me on North Street is to take the place of the old home that I have sold. The new house is being built on one of the Vacant Lots, which I devised to my nephew S. A. Norman, I hereby revoke the said devise to S. A. Norman, in Item 5 of the above will and give to the said S. A. Norman, One Vacant Lot instead of two, the one now given to him being the lot next to J. A. Alexander's lots and adjoining the lot on which I am building the new house.

In testimony whereof I the said H. N. Norman do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 12 day of Sept. 1928.

H. N. Norman, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said H. N. Norman, to be a Codicil to his last will and Testament in our presence, and we, in his presence (and in the presence of each other) have at his request, hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

Jerry Breckhouse Wit.
Codicil #1. Since writing this will I have sold the old home place and my desire is that the new house built on North Street to be in place of the old home that I sold. Also I desired T. A. Norman be in section 5 of this will two vacant lots; one of these lots I have used to build the new house on, and this will leave only one vacant lot instead of two for T. A. Norman as set out Section 5th of this will, it being the lot next to J. A. Alexander's lots.
