In the Superior Court Before the Clerk
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Irene Overton, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Dr. W. H. Hardison, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Irene Overton by the oath and examination of W. H. Hardison & W. H. Davenport, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Irene Overton; that the said Irene Overton, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 18th day of Feb'y, 1918.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said Irene Overton the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Irene Overton was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information, or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

W. H. Hardison
